Automatic Oil Delivery*

With our convenient, hassle-free, automatic delivery plan, you won't ever have to worry about having enough oil because the necessary quantity is delivered to your home on a set schedule. Under this automatic oil delivery plan, we are so confident of our accuracy that if we let you run out of fuel, we'll issue you a fifty-dollar check.

The EZ Payment Plan

It's really simple. We examine your past usage to forecast next year's fuel costs. Then, we simply divide that amount into equal monthly payments. At the end of the budget season, we'll either credit your account for the following year or bill you for the remaining balance due. There is no penalty or additional charge by signing up for this plan and your standard discounts are still included.

* Special offer available only upon completion of credit application and credit approval.

 We accept all major credit cards, as well as Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) as payment options for oil deliveries, service and EZ Payment Plans.
